Subject ANNUAL PARADE OF THE JAPANESE NAVAL LANDING PARTY.

Made by and Forwarded by Inspector J. Watson
Officer i/c.

Sir,

I have to report that at 10 a.m. 7-1-41. the annual parade, and review of the Japanese Naval Landing Party, was held at Hongkew Park. Mechanised units were inspected on Kiangwan Road. Following the inspection "Mechanised Units" proceeded south on North Szechuen Road, Japanese Naval Landing Party Units on foot headed by the Naval Band, and buglers proceeded along Dixwell Road, whilst another detachment marched south on North Szechuen Road. Many high ranking Japanese Naval, and Military Officials attended, as well as representatives of America, Great Britain, France, and Italy.

Extra Police were posted at all important points in the vicinity of Hongkew Park, North Szechuen Road, and Dixwell Road. A large number of Japanese civilians, and school children visited Hongkew Park. The crowd was estimated to number about 10,000.

No untoward incident reported.

Traffic was held up for a short period during the parade.

I am, Sir,

Yours obediently,

Japanese Landing Party To Hold Parade

Special New Year Ceremony
Due on Saturday

Combined forces from the Japanese Special Naval Landing Party and Japanese men-of-war in port will hold a New Year's parade in Hongkew Park on Saturday, a Japanese naval spokesman announced yesterday. Mechanized units of the Landing Party will parade on Kiangwan Road.

Rear-Admiral Yoshinobu Shishido, commandant of the Special Naval Landing Party, will take the salute. Vice-Admiral Koshiro Oikawa, commander-in-chief of the Japanese China Seas Fleet, will attend the event, he said. Officers from the various foreign military forces in Shanghai, Japanese army officers, and others had been invited, according to the spokesman.

The parade will start at 10 o'clock in the morning. Admission will be by invitation only.

As if overawed by the grim display of armed strength Japanese children of both sexes, standing three deep along the pavements, watched without any trace of excitement, the passage of the vehicles with their loads of smartly-clad blue-jackets as they trooped by the reviewing stand. The same conditions prevailed shortly afterwards in Hongkew Park when the infantry units of the Japanese naval forces passed in review formation.

Rear of Tanks

A few moments later the fire was in which were seated Rear-Admiral Yoshinaga Shinkichi, commander of the Japanese Naval Landing Force, and his staff officer, passed by Rear-Admiral Chiang with two other officers carrying nearly one million cash yen in paper money. They went to a police station nearby in conversation with detained German soldiers of artillery, the majority of which were bayoneted, machine gunned and shelled.

The Japanese navy minister, Admiral Yamamoto, had earlier threatened to sink the last line of vehicles.

Japanese Navy Maneuvers On Local Schedule

Shanghai residents, who happen to hear gunfire this afternoon, will have no reason to be alarmed. It will be only Japanese bluejackets engaged in extensive overnight maneuvers in this area.

The maneuvers were announced last night by a Japanese naval spokesman. They will start at 4 p.m. today and end at 11 a.m. Saturday. They are being conducted as a part of an intensive preparedness campaign program for the Japanese Special Naval Landing Party in Shanghai, the spokesman continued.

The war games will cover a wide area, extending from the North Station in Chapel to Woosung. Blank rifle, machine-gun, and field and anti-aircraft artillery will be used, the spokesman said. He added that traffic may be stopped in the areas covered.

Subject Training Exercise of the Japanese Naval Landing Party.

Made by D. S. Kamashita

Forwarded by

C. Crawford D.S.

With reference to the attached report dated July 23, 1937, regarding the training exercise of the Japanese Naval Landing Party, I have to state that the exercises are reported to have taken place in the Yangtszepoo District between 3 a.m. and 5.30 a.m. July 23, some 300 members of the Naval Landing Party participating. It is also reported that a number of rounds of blank rifle and machine-gun ammunition were fired during the exercises.

Lieutenant-Commander Yamanouchi, a Staff Officer of the Naval Landing Party, during a telephone conversation with the undersigned this morning, stated that a similar practice is to be held in the Yangtszepoo District in the early morning of July 24. These training exercises, the officer states, are scheduled to be held almost every other day but will be confined to the Yangtszepoo District; the Municipal Police may not be notified beforehand. Large scale manoeuvres will not take place in the near future on account of the tense situation at present. Should it be decided to hold such manoeuvres the Municipal Police will be notified.

Sir,

I beg to report that at 3.15a.m. 17-7-37 I observed a contingent of the Japanese Naval Landing Party in this district, consisting of some 14-15 Military Trucks, and carrying approximately 100 men. They drew up and deployed outside Yulin Road Station. Later, at about 3.45a.m. some 8-9 additional trucks drawing the same number of field-pieces passed through on Pingliang Road proceeding East. The latter were joined by the former and all left the district at approx. 3.50a.m. Total number of men in both contingents estimated to be in the region of 200.

Made by S.I. Trodd Forwarded by W. H. H. H. H. Officer i/c

Sir,

I beg to report that between 8 a.m. - 11 a.m. on 9-6-37, approximately 200 officers and men of the Japanese Naval Landing Party held manoeuvres in the portion of this district bounded by Linching, Kweiyang, Hochien and Yangtszepoo Roads.

This force was divided into two parties and each party into an attacking and defending force. One of the parties carried out tactical exercises west of Glen Road whilst the other, which was assisted by one large and one small tank, armoured cars and motor cycles carried out similar operations east of Glen Road.

Blank rifle and machine gun ammunition was fired.

The large tank when turning at the intersection of Glen and Pingliang Roads damaged the soft road surface.
